THE VICTIMS OF GAS

A Family From West Point About Exterminated.

WIFE AND HER CHILDREN ARE DEAD.

Ravinius, the Husband, a Printer at West Point, Completely Broke Down When the News of the Tragedy Was Conveyed to Him.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Mrs. Caroline Ravinius of West Point registered at the West Shore hotel, Forty-second street and Eleventh avenue, with her four small children. They were all five found dead in bed, with the gas jets in the room turned on at full force.

It was 9 o'clock when the travelers reached the hotel. Mrs. Ravinius asked for two rooms and was given rooms 34 and 35, connecting, on the third floor. The travelers remained in the rooms a few minutes. Then the woman and some of the children went out into Eighth avenue, where they made purchases of cloth, returning to the hotel with their bundles.

The children were Laura, 15 years old; William, 11; Albert, 8, and Elizabeth, 5.

Martha Hupfer, a chambermaid employed in the hotel, rapped at the door of 34, the room occupied by Mrs. Ravinius. There was no answer, and when the girl repeated the summons and again received no response, she called Samuel Sprague, one of the hotel attendants.

Sprague tried the door and, finding it locked, stepped out on the fire escape. A window in room 34 opens on the fire escape. Through this aperture the boy climbed. His shouts of alarm as he entered the room brought all the other occupants of the hotel to the corridor outside the door. Sprague opened the door and revealed a terrible sight.

The woman was lying in bed with her two little girls, one on either side. They were all apparently sleeping, but their features were distorted as though the sleepers were in excruciating pain.

She was the wife of Robert Ravinius, an enlisted man in the United States army at West Point. He is a printer in the Administrative building. He has been in the army 30 years, and expects to be retired in July next. When he received news of the tragedy he was terribly affected by it. He is a German and speaks English imperfectly. He was so excited that he could give no coherent account of his family. He started for New York, accompanied by Dr. Saunders of the post.

Captain Brown, who is in charge, with two policemen, of the bodies, says that he fears the result of the shock to the husband. Mr. Ravinius stood looking sternly at his family's bodies. He shed no tears. The captain fears that the result may prove fatal to the husband.

Mrs. Ravinius was born in Germany in 1857 and was married to Ravinius 16 years ago at Highland Falls. Before her marriage she was a servant in the officers' quarters at West Point. She was a very pleasant neighbor, so her associates say. Mrs. Ravinius had a brother and a sister at West Point. The sister is Mrs. Victor Leher, wife of an enlisted man. She lives in a little settlement named Logtown, not far from the parade grounds. She was prostrated by the news of the tragedy. Her brother is Gottlieb Craig, who is a policeman in the cadet barracks.

Ravinius is entitled to retire after 30 years of service on July 9 next. He is a man of considerable education.

Went to New York For Treatment.

WEST POINT, Oct. 2.—Later developments concerning the woman who, with her four children, was asphyxiated at the West Shore hotel, are that Mrs. Ravinius went to New York with a view to entering a hospital for treatment, expecting to stop with her sister, a Mrs. Keyser, in the city, at 318 Pearl street, and why she went to a hotel is a mystery.

The Naval Veterans' Staff.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Commander in Chief Daniel F. Kelly of the National Association of Naval Veterans, has announced the following appointments on the general staff of the association: Chief of staff, Francis B. Allen of Hartford; inspector general, William J. Ferguson of Philadelphia; judge advocate general, Charles Cowley of Lowell, Mass.; national historian, William Simmons of Philadelphia; national secretary, Frederick E. Haskins of Brooklyn; national boatswain, J. Robbins of Newark, N. J.; chief Southwestern division, W. E. Atkins of Cincinnati; chief Northeastern division, W. Scott Smith of Portsmouth, N. H.; chief Middle division, Charles Karsner of Philadelphia. The headquarters of the national association for the ensuing year will be in Independence hall, Philadelphia. Francis B. Allen, who has been named for chief of staff, was elected junior vice commander in chief of the G. A. R. at the recent encampment in Buffalo.

An American Won It.

BERLIN, Oct. 2.—The much coveted music prize known as the Mendelssohn stipendium has been won by Miss Leonora Jackson, an American competitor. The competition aroused the keenest interest among musicians and students of music, representatives of a score of countries and of all parts of Germany entering the lists. The prize is 1,500 marks. This is the first occasion when the stipendium has been won by an American.

Stepped in Front of a Train.

OWEGO, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Michael Butino, a section hand employed on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, stepped in front of the westbound milk train about a mile east of the station and received injuries which resulted in his death. He leaves a widow and family in Italy.

WHOLESALE FORGERIES

Mr. C. P. Neuberger Is In Serious Difficulty at Boston.

BOSTON, Oct. 2.—Detectives have exposed a bold scheme to build up a business by spurious check process. A man supposed to be C. P. Neuberger, but who claimed to be Louis Shapiro, a dealer in trimmings at 97 Oliver street, is under arrest, charged with uttering a forged check on the Continental bank.

The prisoner, it is charged, secured a bankbook from the Continental bank showing deposits aggregating about $9,250.58 upon checks and drafts purporting to have been made payable to the Manhattan Clothing company, of which he was proprietor, by Siegel, Cooper & Co. and Smith, Gray & Co. of New York.

Several checks of small amounts purporting to have been made by Smith, Gray & Co., payable to the Manhattan company, were placed with the Continental people the day following. Later a check for $1,400, made payable to the Manhattan Clothing company by one P. Cohen through the Bowery National bank of New York, excited the suspicion of the Continental people, and in reply to an inquiry the Boston bank people were told that no such person as P. Cohen had an account with the Bowery bank. When Neuberger called at the bank to make "deposits" he was placed under arrest. After a conference between Captain Dugan and the firms mentioned in the checks, it was shown that all the papers were forgeries.

THE TREASURY STATEMENT.

How the Public Debt Increase Is Accounted For.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The monthly treasury statement shows that at the close of business Sept. 30, the public debt, less cash in the treasury, was $1,012,122,713, an increase since Aug. 30 of $2,787,592. This increase is accounted for by a corresponding decrease in the amount of cash on hand. The debt is recapitulated as follows:

Interest bearing debt, $847,365,540; debt on which interest has ceased since maturity, $1,324,570; debt bearing no interest, $378,615,390. Total, $1,227,315,500. This amount, however, does not include $589,070,953 in certificates and treasury notes outstanding, which are offset by an equal amount of cash in the treasury.

The cash in the treasury is classified as follows: Gold, $184,561,664; silver, $513,481,747; paper, $133,611,339; bonds, disbursing officers' balances, etc., $18,713,880; total, $850,368,631, against which there are demand liabilities outstanding amounting to $635,175,844, which leaves a net cash balance in the treasury of $215,192,787.

A VILLAGE MYSTERY

The Little Town of Dublin Is Worked Up Over It.

THEIR STRANGE HERMIT DISAPPEARS

He Was a Unique Character, Living on a Farm For Which He Paid a Round Sum, but Would Not Cultivate It.

SENECA FALLS, N. Y., Oct. 2.—F. B. Park, a resident of Dublin, a small hamlet about eight miles from here, has disappeared under mysterious circumstances, and up to date nothing has been heard of him. The whole community is worked up over the disappearance. Some folks say Park was demented, but he never gave anybody a chance to know him well enough to judge of his sanity, so peculiar were his habits and such the manner of his coming and going.

Park was a sealed book to the inquiring gossips of the village. One day last spring he suddenly appeared at Dublin, from where nobody knows. He made no friends and made no confidences. There was a small farm near the village, and Park bought it, paying something over $1,000 for the property. With his belongings he moved into the farmhouse and began the life of a hermit. He meddled with no one and permitted no one to meddle with him.

The kindly farmer folk of the neighborhood made bold to call upon him and offer their friendship to the new farmer, but he politely yet insistently showed them that he was not a neighbor and had no desire to be. In a short time his visitors had sense enough to let him alone. A man who had no neighbors and didn't want any was immediately pronounced a lunatic by the visiting folk of Dublin.

Being left alone, Park led a life which his observers say was eccentric. He never did any work, and, stranger still, never went to the village store for groceries, two lapses which in the Dublin mind are nothing less than crime. He never received any mail, so he gave no clew to the postmaster and his gossiping friends as to his former residence. He was just Park, and that was all.

As soon as he developed eccentricities, he became an object of unusual interest in the community, and his every motion was watched. He went to bed late and rose early, bestirring himself regularly at 5 in the morning. While he never worked at any regular occupation on the farm, he did some little pottering about, and the last time he was seen was on Monday, Sept. 20, when he was trimming limbs off some trees in a back lot.

As he did not appear again the farmers soon began to be alarmed, and, fearing that he might be ill, they visited the house in which they had never been welcome. The place was untenanted. On the table was a half finished meal, as if Park had been disturbed at his supper by some one. Everything in the house was in order.

No search has been made for him, the citizens waiting for the local officers to take action in the matter, but Park has gone as mysteriously as he came, and left his farm to the neighbors whom he refused to cultivate. He is described as being between 50 and 60 years of age, has black piercing eyes, gray hair, dark skin, and walks with a quick, jerky step. When last seen he wore a dark brown suit, denim shirt, boots and a black felt hat.

SUICIDE AFTER MARRIAGE.

Desperate Attempt of a Very Prominent Yonkers Physician.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Dr. Robert M. Flagg, one of the leading physicians of Yonkers and a bridegroom of only a few hours, jumped from a second-story window of the Murray Hill hotel, in this city, despite the desperate efforts of his bride to prevent him.

It was believed that his skull was fractured, and he was taken to the residence of his friend, Dr. William Tod Helmuth, at 465 Lexington avenue.

Dr. Flagg's recovery is not expected, in spite of the operation of trephining performed on him. His wife is nearly distracted.

The Pope Very Ill.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—News of the serious illness of the pope has reached here, and the fear is expressed that he will not be able to rally in his weakened condition. The Globe says that the church dignitaries are alarmed over the extreme feebleness and exhaustion he betrays. The weakness which came over him during his previous illness has been steadily becoming more apparent to his faithful attendants.

Stoned the Soldiers.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 2.—A serious labor dispute is in progress at Dambrowa, Poland. Four thousand five hundred iron workers have gone out on strike and have stoned the soldiers sent to quell the disturbance. During the disorder last evening the soldiers fired on the strikers, killing three outright and seriously wounding four. The government has dispatched additional troops to the scene of the strike.

Killed While Hunting.

BENNINGTON, Vt., Oct. 2.—Word was received here from Glastenbury that John Harbor, a well known lumberman of Woodford, was accidentally killed while deer hunting. The body was found with a bullet hole in the head, the ball having entered the cheek and passed upward through the brain.

Sailed For Guatemala.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The Alert has sailed from Acapulco to Ocas, Guatemala, the scene of recent Central American troubles.

SOMETHING LIKE TAMMANY.

But the Democratic Alliance Indorses Henry George and the Silver Platform.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—At the city nominating convention of the Democratic alliance of Greater New York, held at 54 West Twenty-third street, Henry George was unanimously nominated for mayor. The nominating speech was made by Charles Frederick Adams. The nomination was greeted with enthusiastic applause.

The platform as adopted briefly embodies the following: A reaffirmation of the Chicago platform; a demand for home rule in municipal affairs; the municipal ownership and control of franchises; direct employment in all civic affairs; eight hour law and prevailing rate of wages; representation of labor in the administrative and legislative branches of municipal government; adequate school accommodation; right of open air speaking; denunciation of law by injunction, and finally, abolition of property qualification for grand jury and petit jury.

Sudden End to the Meeting.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 2.—At the National Democratic convention Frederick W. Hinrichs of Brooklyn mounted the platform and placed the name of Seth Low in nomination. A free fight was threatened. The police were called on to clear the hall. Acting Inspector Cross broke up the meeting and sent for the reserves.

Tammany Conventions Adjourned.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The Tammany county and borough conventions, which were called to order by ex-Police Commissioner James J. Martin, after completing permanent organization, adjourned on leader John C. Sheehan's motion to meet again on Oct. 7.

FAILURES DECREASE.

What Dun's Review Has to Say About Business Matters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

The failures during the third quarter of 1897 were 2,900, with liabilities of $28,200,000, of which 29 were in banking for $3,387,069. Commercial failures, 2,874, with liabilities of $24,850,000, average only $8,600 each—lower than in any other quarter for 23 years. The amount of defaulted liabilities is the smallest in any quarter for five years, and in 15 years only six quarters have shown smaller liabilities. Manufacturing failures, 621, with liabilities of $8,927,000, average but $14,000 each, and trading, 2,164, with liabilities of $12,423,000, average, but $6 000 each, both smaller in average of liabilities than in any previous years of which classified records exist.

Legitimate business continues a little more extensive than in the same month of 1892, for while the great increase of 27.4 per cent at New York might be supposed to be due to speculative activity in spite of the establishment and growth of the Stock Exchange clearing house, yet payments through the principal clearing houses outside of New York exceeded those of 1892 by 2.2 per cent for the week and 1.7 per cent for September. New York makes settlements for a large part of the country, and the daily average, including this city, was in September $206,364,000, against $134,953 000 last year, $133,310 000 in 1894, $122 703.000 in 1893 and $176,327,000 in 1892, so that the gain over the same month in the best of the past is 17 per cent. Railroad earnings, considerable decline in general rates having occurred in five years, are 1.7 per cent smaller for September than in 1892, though 12.3 per cent larger than last year. East bound tonnage from Chicago, 252,190, against 244,576 in September, 1892, shows an increase of 3 per cent.

TUBING IN HIS MOUTH.

C. E. K. Royce, a Man From Frisco, Suicides in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct 2.—C. E. K. Royce, who registered from San Francisco, killed himself at the Grand Union hotel. The body was found fully dressed on the bed.

In his mouth was a new rubber tube, which was connected with the gas jet immediately above his head.

The body was cold, death evidently having taken place some time during the night.

The New Greek Premier.

ATHENS, Oct. 2.—M. Zaimis has consented to form a cabinet. M. Skouloudis, minister of foreign affairs in the Ralli cabinet, will probably retain the foreign office portfolio. M. Delyannis has informed King George that he will support no cabinet unless he is premier, but there have been so many defections from his ranks that the threat is idle.

Train Jumped the Track.

WEST MEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 2.—Three cars of the Montreal express for Boston jumped the track here last night and several persons were badly injured.

FRAUD IS CHARGED.

Also Assault and Battery In New Jersey Election.

PATERSON HAD ITS FULL QUOTA.

Charles Hunziker, a Silk Dyer, After a Warning to Stay at Home Was Assailed at the Polls, Beaten, Kicked and Ejected.

PATERSON, N. J., Oct. 2.—In case the canvass of the votes cast at the election of Tuesday last in New Jersey should result in finding that the amendment relative to gambling has been defeated there is every chance of an appeal to the courts. The friends of the amendment in Camden are firm in their resolve to push the case there and obtain the throwing out of many ballots.

It is now alleged that a worse condition of affairs existed here than in any other city in the state. It is said that in some of the districts men were intimidated and even bodily thrown from the polling places because of their known support of the amendment. The Passaic grand jury probably will be called upon to take action in the matter.

It is said also that not only were ballots already marked so as to cancel the amendments and make the ballot a vote against them handed to voters, but that ballots were given out that appeared to be perfectly free from any mark, but which had been marked lightly with lead pencil in such a manner that those looking for the mark could make it out to be a cancellation.

William S. Twitchell, principal of school No. 6, has one of these ballots. The ballot has faint lead pencil lines across its face. When the teacher refused to vote this ballot and presented one he had in his pocket the election officers, it is said, wanted him to return the ballot which had been given to him, but he refused. He says he will present the case to the grand jury.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Henry Simpson, James Burns, baseball umpire, and Peter Lee. The warrants were issued on complaint of Charles Hunziker, a silk dyer. According to the complaint, he was warned by a friend before leaving his boarding house that unless he was going to vote against the amendment to stay at home. He says that when he reached the election booth in the Second district of the Fifth ward he found the election officers drunk, as he had been told they were. He found Burns and Lee in the polling place in violation of the law. They had folded ballots and appeared to be taking the place of the board.

Burns and Lee insisted that Hunziker must take a ballot from either of them. These ballots were canceled. Hunziker says he demanded a clean ballot, and after some trouble obtained one. He went into one of the booths and fixed the ballot to suit himself.

When he came out of the booth he says Simpson, one of the inspectors, jumped across the railing and knocked him down, and was proceeding to beat him, when Lee intervened, and grabbing hold of him, threw him out of the building. When he landed outside he says Burns made a lunge at him and missed, but followed him up the street. Finding Burns was about to catch him, Hunziker says, he dropped to the sidewalk and Burns fell over him, but jumped up and kicked him twice. He went to his home and was not able to leave it until yesterday.

Big Fire In London.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—A big fire broke out last evening shortly before midnight in the Blackfriars road, and before it was quenched did enormous damage. It originated in Pascall's confectionery stores and spread rapidly to the Saunders bacon curing establishment and then to the adjacent premises occupied by the Percivals, well known government contractors. In spite of the efforts of the firemen all these large structures were virtually destroyed.

A Holdup Near Chickasha.

CHICKASHA, I. T., Oct. 2.—Rock Island passenger train No. 3, south bound, was held up at siding No. 1, 10 miles north of this place, by five masked robbers. They made two attempts to blow up the express safe, but were not successful. The robbers made the passengers get out and line up, and secured about $200 or $300, besides the registered mail. The United States marshal, with four deputies, is in hot pursuit.

Claims He Saw the Murder.

BOSTON, Oct. 2.—A special to The Traveler from Concord, Mass., says: John M. Harris of Waltham will be given a preliminary hearing in the district court Monday on the charge of murdering Mrs. Emma Butters. It is said that Carleton Butters, the son of the murdered woman, will give direct evidence against Harris. The claim is that he saw the murderer shoot down Mrs. Butters.

To Govern Algeria.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—A dispatch from Rambouillet says that M. Faure has appointed M. Leopine, prefect of police of Paris, governor of Algeria in succession to M. Jules Cambon, who has been appointed French embassador to the United States.

World's Record Broken.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Oct. 2.—Star Pointer, in competition with Joe Patchen, broke the world's record in a mile race, covering the distance in 2:00½.

Killed by the Cars.

NYACK, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Thomas Nolan, an old resident of Nyack, stooped down under a coal car here when the train was moving. He was instantly killed, his body being badly mangled. He leaves a widow and two children.

A Handsome Complexion is one of the greatest charms a woman can possess. POZZONI'S COMPLEXION POWDER gives it.

THE People of the State of New York to Oliver P. Moore, Charles Moore, Emma Eggman, heirs at law and next of kin of Azuba Moore, late of the city of Middletown, in the county of Orange, deceased, send greeting:

You and each of you are hereby cited personally to be and appear before our Surrogate, at his office, in the city of Newburgh, in said county, on the 19th day of October, 1897, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, to attend the probate of a certain instrument in writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, bearing date the 12th day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety three, on the application of Wilmot Moore, claiming to be sole executor thereof; which said last will relates to and is offered for probate as a will of real and personal property.

And that if any of the persons interested be under the age of twenty-one years they are required to appear by their guardian, if they have one, or if they have none that they appear and apply for one to be appointed, or in the event of their neglect or failure to do so a guardian will be appointed by the Surrogate to represent and act for them in the proceeding.

In testimony, whereof, we have caused the seal of office of our said Surrogate's Court to be hereunto affixed. Witness, [L. S.] Hon. John B. Sarezy, Special Surrogate of our said county of Orange, at Goshen, in our said county, the 30th day of August, A. D. 1897.

BELIEVES IN STYLE.

One of the Hobbies of New York's Chief of Police.

The New York policeman who would gain favor in the eyes of the present acting chief will do well to live up to one rule that he will not find in his manual.

"Have some style about you and remember that it does not cost anything to be polite."

If all the members of the force follow that rule as consistently as do Acting Chief John McCullagh, then, says the New York World, it will be a pleasure for the citizen to meet a policeman.

Acting Chief McCullagh is a handsome man. Born in the north of Ireland

JOHN M'CULLAGH.
(Acting Chief of Police of New York.)

about 50 years ago, he does not look more than 40 years old to-day. Although not a tall man, he is of sturdy frame, athletic and active. His skin is as clear as a boy's, and he has deep blue eyes and a pleasant smile. His Irish blood is shown by the fact that while his eyes are blue and his complexion fair his hair and mustache are black.

McCullagh was a coachman before he became a policeman in 1870. He is not a highly-educated man so far as "book learning" goes, but through reading and keen observation has become a well-posted man. He is a good conversationalist.

There is no better horseman on the force than McCullagh. If he is ever made full chief and rides at the head of a procession of the police of the Greater New York he will make a fine appearance. It was while a member of the old-time mounted squad, with Capt. Williams in command, that he became expert in horsemanship.

McCullagh's rise on the force was steady, but not pyrotechnic. It took him 13 years to get his captaincy. He made a good record from start to finish, not marked by especially brilliant acts, but by constant good service.

McCullagh has shown a genius for police organization as acting inspector in the upper section of the city, the recently-annexed district. He organized the service there, and the men of the precincts over which he presided got to like him very much. There he showed that he believed in policemen dressing well and being gentlemen by visiting the stations frequently and delivering informal lectures to the squads on department.

He is a type of the gentlemanly policeman himself and has made many friends among the very many wealthy men of the city by handling police arrangements for them at large social functions, such as the Gould-Casellane wedding.

The new head of the force lives in a handsome house on the West side, uptown. Mrs. McCullagh is a charming woman of many accomplishments, a member of Sorosis and of the Professional Woman's league. Mr. McCullagh takes great interest in his wife's work in these and kindred organizations.

ARCTIC STOREHOUSES.

They Are Placed on Stilts to Cheat Hungry Dogs and Bears.

Among the numerous hardships of living in Alaska is the difficulty about supplies and provisions. It is hard enough to obtain sufficient food to sustain life, and after provisions have been procured it is just as difficult to keep them. The native dogs and bears eat everything they can find, and they display a remarkable amount of intelligence and slyness in locating something to eat. The miners have tried many methods of protecting their stores, and are now resorting to caches or small houses built on stilts. Here they keep their food with some degree of safety, and the dogs and the bears miss the pleasures of stolen meat.

Chime of Bronze Tubes.

A chime made of 18 bronze tubes arranged in two parallel rows and struck by hammers working from a keyboard, has been set up in the town hall of Levallois-Perret, near Paris. The tubes vary in length from 4½ to 9 feet, and weigh from 57 to 100 pounds.

This Boy Had Assurance.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—A dispatch to The Daily Mail from Vienna says that during the visit of Emperor William to Budapest a cafe errand boy named Karl Kleindienst stole 3 pence from his employer, who threatened to dismiss him unless he replaced the money. Whereupon the lad wrote the following letter to his majesty: "My Dear Emperor—I am a poor errand boy and have stolen 3 pence from my employer. Now I must pay it back, but I have no money. Please send me a few florins. With best thanks and greetings to your wife and children." The next day he received a letter telling him to call upon the German consul. He called and the official gave him 10 shillings from Emperor William.

Leather in the Old Days.

There was one substance—leather—which was extensively used in the vaunted age of chivalry. Leather could be molded, and as "cuir-bouilli" was much worn. Even the helm was ornamented with cuir-bouilli. The "helm" always will cause wonder, for how did the wearer see at all? A man in a fight may have another enemy approach him at the side or back, and with his visor up the knight never could tell exactly the whereabouts of his next foe. In some of these helms the wearer must have been forced to bend his neck, if he could bend it, away down, or away up, to see anything at all. Perhaps there were many random blows struck in former fights, and a tourney was full of blunders.

TOMPKINS' NEW DRY GOODS STORE,

No 8 East Main Street, Middletown.

We sell goods cheaper than any other store but for cash only. Why? Because we give no credit and do not have to make up losses made in this way, nor to earn the expenses of a special bookkeeping department for credit accounts, nor earn the expenses of a collector by charging high prices for our goods. We sell goods cheaper than other stores because we have a resident buyer in New York city, who is always on the lookout for any reliable merchandise that can be bought below regular prices and in this way we often get goods that we retail much below what other merchants are obliged to pay for the same goods at wholesale.

Satisfied Customers are Our Best Advertisers.

Newspaper advertising is good only as a daily mirror of our store happenings. But the advertising from the mouths of satisfied customers on the street, on the cars and in their homes is gilt edge advertising, and we are very fortunate in securing much of this excellent advertising. This week there are some very strong values that will bring us lots of advertising from satisfied customers.

After Many Discouragements They Turn to Munyon.

Mrs. Adam, 242 Broadway, N. Y., says: "I have been treated for numerous complaints with the Munyon Remedies, always with perfect success. One of my severe complaints was dropsy, with which I suffered for three months. Munyon's Remedies cured me of this completely in one week's time. I am now 76 years old, and am glad to say that the Munyon Remedies have given me such renewed health that I feel perfectly well and strong."

A separate cure for each disease. At all druggists, mostly 25 cents a vial. Personal letters to Prof. Munyon, 1505 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.

ON THE TIP OF THE TONGUE.

Gus. C. Roeder, the World man, who covered the Wurtsboro shooting, told a good story on his paper which had its foundation at Hazelton, Pa. They had a correspondent named Joyce there, and on discovering that he was sending them "fakes" he was discharged. Through correspondence they secured the services of a man named "Conroy." He was all right for a time, and then he was "fired," and a man named "Lally" was hired. He gave good service for a short time, but was soon in the old rut of the others, and he too "went," and a man named "Hutch" was secured. He sent a fake, and the World sent Roeder and an artist to the scene. "Hutch" was to meet them at the depot, but he didn't, and no one knew any one by that name. Investigation at a newspaper office divulged the fact that Hutch was Lally, that Lally was Conroy, and Conroy was Joyce. Hutch was fired at once, and as Roeder was leaving town he met Chamberlain, of the Sun, who was inquiring for Lally on the same story.

What would a Sullivan county inquest be without J. V. Morrison as clerk? He is just as necessary as a corpse and a good deal more in evidence. He knows how to take down testimony and always keeps his mind in active operation in order that no vital questions shall fail to be asked through the oversight of the empowered questioner. He has a good idea of law, is as full of sharp guesses as a shrewd detective and is withal a gentleman of the old school.

It would seem, however, as if with a little study good natured Coroner Helm could memorize that simple little formula: "Hold up your right hand and be sworn. Do you solemnly swear that the evidence you shall give touching the death of the person deceased shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help you God."

The coroner did appear as standing up before that crowd of men reading that oath every time a witness was sworn.

Anyone desirous of locating good rabbit ground far away from any house can get some information by applying to the writer or the local Herald correspondent.

The chances of a Sullivan county murderer's escaping are a great deal better than in this county. When one drives (or leads a horse) miles and miles in that county without seeing a house it is not strange that murderers walk away unseen. Probably half of the residents of that county do not know to-day that Christien killed two men and is at large.

The restaurant business is picking up The fall weather seems to encourage appetites and nearly all of the restaurants report an increase in business during the past two weeks. The number of local people who like an occasional meal at a public hostelry grows each year and the restaurant business may yet be a paying one.

Erie Brakeman's Arm Crushed.

Alfred E. Gillison, a young Englishman employed on the Erie as brakeman, while making a coupling at Otisville, Friday morning, had his arm so badly crushed that amputation will probably be necessary. He was taken to the Port Jervis Hospital.

DO IT FOR YOURSELF.

You can tell just as well as a physician whether your kidneys are diseased or healthy. The way to do is to take a bottle or glass tumbler, and fill it with urine. If there is a sediment—a powder-like substance—at the bottom after standing a day and night, there is something wrong with the kidneys. Another sure sign of disease is a desire to urinate often, and still another sign is pain in the back If urine stains linen, there is no doubt that the kidneys are affected.

Any and all diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and of the urinary passages and constipation of the bowels are cured by Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. There is no question about its being the best and surest medicine in the world for such troubles. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine, and people, young or old, who take it are not compelled to get up a number of times during the night. For putting an end to that scalding pain experienced in passing urine, nothing is so good as Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. It corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer; is pleasant to taste, and does not seem to be medicine at all. Diseases of the kidneys and bladder often require the use of instruments to push back the sandy matter so the urine can be voided. In such cases Favorite Remedy should be taken without further delay or the disease may prove fatal. It is sold for one dollar a bottle at all drug stores. It is well worth many times its price.

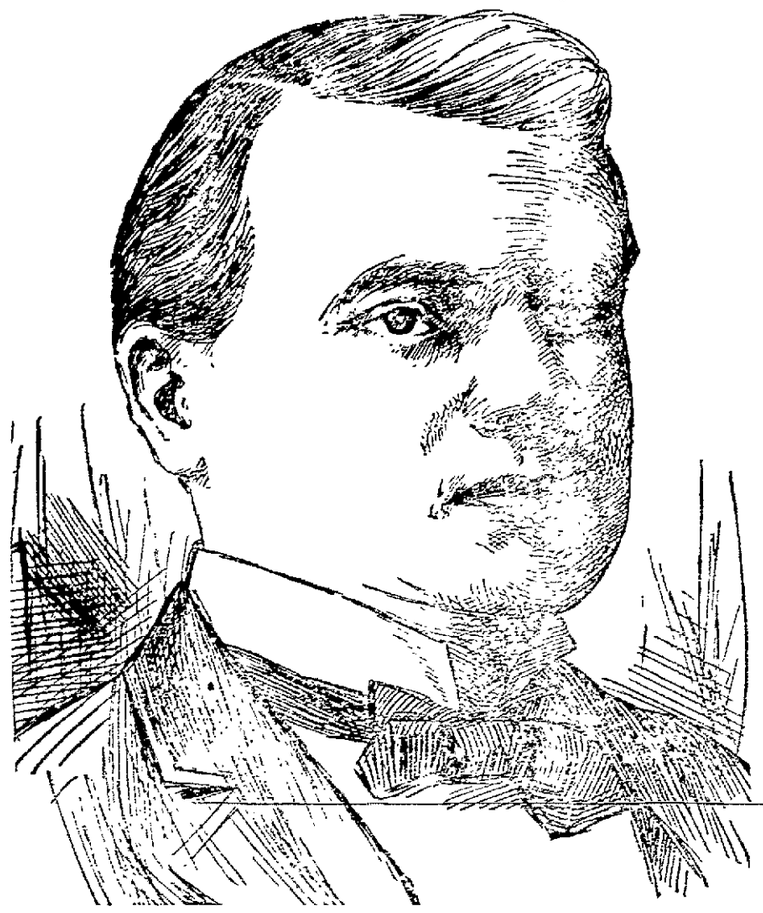
Samples Free.

If you wish to test Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy before buying it, send your full post office address to the Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y., and mention this paper. We will then mail you a sample bottle free, as well as circulars giving full directions for its use. Every reader of the ARGUS can depend upon the genuineness of this liberal offer, and all sufferers from kidney troubles should take advantage of it at once.

No need to fear, the approach of croup if you have Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil in the house. Never was a case that it wouldn't cure if used at the outset.

DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE.

Hon. J. S. McCarthy Completely Cured by Paine's Celery Compound.



Department of Agriculture.
Division of Statistics.
Washington, D. C., July 9, 1897.

Wells, Richardson & Co:

Gentlemen—Something over a year ago I was suffering with nervousness, loss of appetite and insomnia. I was all run down, and nothing did me any good until a friend advised me to try Paine's celery compound. I took four bottles of the compound and I am more than proud to testify that it completely cured me. I haven't had an unwell day since. I eat heartly and sleep like a healthy baby. I consider Paine's celery compound the best remedy manufactured, and I most heartily recommend it to suffering humanity the world over. Sincerely yours, James S. McCarthy.

Sleeplessness is the most common, as well as the most alarming, ailment among those who toil with their brains.

Patient after patient repeat the same story. He goes to bed at the usual hour falls off to sleep very much as usual, but instead of sleeping through the whole night wakes about three or earlier and can get "no more sleep after that time."

Carry home a bottle of Paine's celery compound and see how soon insomnia gives way to sound, refreshing sleep.

The best remedy in the world is not too much for any one to insist on getting. Every one, whether sick or well, must know the immense good Paine's celery compound has done and is doing, tired, half-sick, sleepless men and women all over the country.

The vague, half-hearted attempt so many people make to get rid of poor health is pitiable. Rheumatism, headaches, neuralgia, kidney troubles, skin diseases and dyspepsia may be wholly exterminated from the system, never to bother one again, if one will but cleanse the blood and regulate the nerves with Paine's celery compound.

Get out of despondency, the "blues," or whatever name you give to these attacks of nervous depression. Don't mope around half sick. Persons who think that they are fairly well and "only a little tired" need just the toning up and refreshing that Paine's celery compound undoubtedly gives. Nothing could be more suicidal than for sickly men and women to shut their eyes to the great opportunities offered by Paine's celery compound. No remedy ever called forth such vigorous testimonials and decided opinions from every class of men and women.

LAST OF THE SEASON.

Ontario and Western Mary Powell Excursion Oct. 6.

On account of the disagreeable weather experienced when the last Mary Powell excursion was run, the Ontario and Western has consented to give the public the very last chance of the season to visit New York via the popular steamer Mary Powell, at the usual rate of $1 for the round trip. Excursion train leaves Middletown at 7 a. m., Wednesday next, Oct. 6. Returning leave Desbrosses street at 3:15 p. m. Trolley car will leave Goshen at 6:30 a. m., making connection with excursion train at Main street.

The trip on the Hudson at this season of the year cannot be surpassed, the magnificence of the foliage and the splendor of the Highlands being beyond description of the pen. The date is Oct. 6th and the rate $1. dtd

OVER THE SHAWANGUNKS

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS IN SULLIVAN COUNTY ARE DOING.

All the News from All Parts of the County—Many Matters of Interest Condensed from Our Sullivan Exchanges and Contributed by Wide Awake Correspondents.

—Don Conway, a Thompsonville farmer, is showing stalks of White Cluster buckwheat over five feet tall and boasts a yield of over forty bushels an acre.

—The school district war at White Lake has ended by a decision of the State Superintendent. The decision held that the proceedings of the meetings called to change the site were proper and legal, and in consequence thereof the site is on the Liberty road, near the corner. A $2,000 school house is being built and the district will be bonded to raise the money.—Watchman.

—H. D. Jobe of Kiamesha Tribe, Monticello, has been appointed by the Grand Sachem a member of the committee on Laws and Usages, one of the most important in the Red Men's order.

—The Sullivan County Sunday School Convention will be held in the Baptist Church, Liberty, on next Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 6 and 7.

—James F. Wood has purchased of Col. Palmer his interest in the Spring Brook Acid Factory and store at Rockland. The bargain was consummated on Wednesday night.

—Monday morning about 3 o'clock the large boarding house and contents of Lewis Husten, at Mountaindale, burned to the ground. The insurance will cover two-thirds of the value of the building. There was no insurance on the furnishings.—Watchman.

—At the Democratic County Convention the following were named as members of the County Committee:

Bethel, E. A. Ramsey; Callicoon, W. H. Knemm: Cochecton, M. Millen; Fallsburgh, D. J. Pierce; Forestburgh, M. E. Gallighan; Fremont, U. S. Minckler; Delaware, Sid Wenzel: Highland, R. H. Metzger: Liberty, F. M. Buckley; Lumberland, G. M. Decker; Mamakating, P. H Ferguson: Neversink, Lewis DuBois; Rockland, W. H. McGrath; Thompson, A. M. Scriber: Tusten, G. W. Engelmann.

The committee was organized with W. H. McGrath as chairman and A. M. Scriber as secretary.

—Peter Cryan has sold his place in West Settlement to Peter Moran, of New York. Consideration $1,650.

—A runaway team belonging to James Linkletter, of Bridgeville, collided, Saturday evening, with the wagon in which Matthew and John Smith, of Bridgeville, were riding to Monticello. Both were thrown out and John received a bad cut over the right eye.

—The Neversink town fair, held at Grahamsville, was a most pronounced success. There were 1,500 people on the grounds, the exhibits numbered 1,301, nearly 200 more than last year, and they were of fine quality. The gate receipts were $413.25.

—A foot ball team is to be organized in Monticello.

—Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lynch, of Mountaindale, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Rose E., to John D. O'Neill, of Fallsburgh, on the evening of Tuesday, October 12th, at Mountaindale.

—There are eighty-five patients in the Loomis Sanitarium, Liberty.

—Peter Wakeman, while unloading a heavy barrel of wire at Ainslie's mill, Saturday, broke the bones of one of his legs and severely sprained the ankle.—Rockland Review.

—It is stated that there are nearly forty schools in this county without teachers and scarcely a teacher can be found who has not an engagement.

—Diphtheria of the most malignant type caused the deaths, Tuesday, of Maggie and Coney Wegmann, children of Peter Wegmann, of Beechwoods. The children had been sick for several days before a physician was called, the dread nature of their malady not being suspected. Another child of the family is very low and two others are recovering.

—The Monticello lodge of Good Templars holds the banner for having initiated the most new members during the past three months.

—A. M. Scriber, of the Monticello Watchman, has been appointed District Deputy Grand Sachem of the Red Men for the first district of Sullivan county by Great Sachem Joseph Beglan.

—A new bell will be placed in the belfry of the Episcopal Church, it being a gift to the church by Charles Merrian, who with his family has been stopping at the Mecca during the summer.—Liberty Register

—Work on the Jeffersonville-Liberty electric road is progressing slowly.

—Will Trowbridge expects to build a large three-story summer boarding house at Kiamesha Lake, near the old homestead.

—Frieda V., daughter of Adam Bernhardt, of Kenoza Lake, died of diphtheria, Saturday, in her twenty-first year

—It is reported that James F. Calbreath has disposed of his property at White Lake, and will start for Klondike in the spring. He spent three years in Alaska with a brother, returning about a year ago.

—It is rumored that a big hotel will be built at Kiamesha Lake the coming year, costing over $75,000, by a stock company. The hotel will have extensive piazzas, which will be inclosed with glass in the winter, and the house will be run both as a summer and winter resort. Such a plan is a first-class one and we have no doubt would pay well.—Republican.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, D C., Oct. 2.—Probably fair Sunday, preceded by threatening weather; cooler, to-night.

THE TEMPERATURE.

The following was the registry of the thermometer at Pronk's drug store, to-day:
8 a. m., 56°; 12 m., 59°. 3 p m., 69°.

SATURDAY, OCT. 2, 1897.

New York's Grand Jury made a novel presentment, Friday, in regard to taxation and assessment. After reciting the inequalities of the present system, and pointing out the discriminations against New York made year after year by the up-country State Tax Commissioners, they declare it as their opinion that the remedy for the injustice of the present system is to be found in a complete change in the tax laws by which taxes on personal property shall be collected by the State as the only contribution of citizens toward the expenses of State government, and that taxes on real estate shall be collected by each town, county and city solely for local purposes.

The deadlocked Republican convention in that portion of the town of Hempstead, L. I., which is to be included in Greater New York, introduced a novelty in political procedure, Thursday night. The supporters of two candidates threw dice to determine which of the candidates should receive their support, and the "bones" having rolled in favor of the Rockaway Beach candidate, he was duly nominated. This method of making nominations is not so impressive, perhaps, as convincing refractory delegates by breaking their heads, but it is a great deal cheaper than boodling, and on the whole has much to commend it, for dice, even if loaded, are as capable of deciding the merits and claims of candidates as the average loaded delegate.

OUT OF THE WATER BOARD.

Commissioner Fellows's Resignation in the Mayor's Hands—Pressure of Private Business the Assigned Reason—Hostility of Republican Managers the Real One.

Water Commissioner O. S. Fellows has resigned. His letter of resignation sent to Mayor Berry, to-day, was as follows:

To the Honorable D. W. Berry, Mayor City of Middletown:

DEAR SIR.—I hereby tender my resignation as member of the Board of Water Commissioners.

Pressure of private business is such that I will be unable to give the time necessary for the proper performance of the duties of the office. I wish my resignation to take effect at once.

Very Respectfully,
O. S. FELLOWS.

Mr. Fellows said this afternoon to a representative of the ARGUS that he had nothing to add to the official communication sent to the Mayor,—it covered the ground so far as he is concerned.

It is, however, an open secret in political circles that Mr Fellows' real reason for retiring from official life is the unconcealed hostility of the Republican managers toward him In canvassing possible candidates for the vacancies in the Water Board the first question they have asked in every instance has been the attitude of the suggested candidate toward Mr Fellows and his plan for increasing the city's water supply. Unless the individual under consideration was known to be "dead against" Mr. Fellows and his plan he was set aside as unavailable.

Mr. Fellows is well aware of the hostile attitude of the managers of his party He knows their determination to place in nomination for the Water Board candidates pledged to oppose him. He is powerless to defeat their purposes and realizing that with a Board packed against him it would be impossible for him to make his influence felt or accomplish anything he got from under foot the machine had decided to crush him

Mr Fellows resignation from the Water Board at this time leaves three vacancies to be filled at this fall's election

It is probable that with Mr Fellows off of the Board it will have little difficulty in getting on a plan of increased water supply and with the Board united in support of a plan the citizens will undoubtedly vote the money necessary to give Middletown the additional water supply that it so sadly needs

A Surprise Party.

About forty of the young friends of Fred Phillips gave him a surprise party Thursday night at the home of his parents, Mr and Mrs James M. Phillips 23 Cottage street. The surprise was genuine to Fred and not an inkling to the coming of his friends. The evening was very pleasantly spent and a fine supper brought by the self-invited guests, was served

STATE HOSPITAL APPOINTMENTS

Dr. D. E. Francisco Named as Junior Physician, and J. B. Swezey, of Goshen, as Special Counsel.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Dr. D. E. Francisco, of New York, has been appointed as Junior Physician in the Middletown State Hospital, at a salary of $900 a year.

The State Commission in Lunacy has appointed J. B. Swezey, of Goshen, Orange county, as Special Attorney to the Middletown State Hospital, at a salary of $1 200 a year.

JOHNNIE BAIRD'S WAYWARD LIFE

Recalled by Proceedings to Set Aside Judgments for Big Amounts Held by Port Jervis Parties.

The wild and wayward life of John W Baird, Jr., formerly of this city, was recalled by proceedings in Brooklyn, Thursday, to set aside judgments for a large amount on file against him.

The action is brought in the name of Thomas Watts and Frances M. Barnes, trustees, and is in the interest of Baird's mother who is the heir to the estate left him by his uncle, the late John W. Baird.

Young Baird, it will be remembered, squandered all the cash left him by his uncle and then proceeded to realize all the money possible on his interest in the real estate of his uncle, which by the terms of the will went to him on the death of the testator's widow.

This money spent, young Baird went to Port Jervis and secured a situation as brakeman on the Erie road. Just how it was done is not known, but in a few weeks, judgments by confession, to the amount of $20,000 were filed against him. Among these judgments which were assailed, Thursday, were the following: E. C. Beirne, $6,000, W. C. Cole, $5.500; Wm. Cole, $2,000, Thomas Farrell, $2,000. A. T. Brown, $1.100.

An adjournment was had until some day hereafter agreed upon by counsel for the purpose of putting in some documentary evidence and summing up.

The plaintiffs appeared by Wm. Vanamee and Thomas Watts and John W. Lyon. W. F. O'Neill appeared for the defendants. Beirne, Brown and W. H. Crane appeared for defendants Cole and Beirne as assignee.

Baird committed suicide in the west several years ago, by taking poison, in order to escape arrest for forgery. It has been reported more than once that he was not dead, after all, but such reports have no substantial foundation.

MR. O'NEILL DECLINED.

Offered the Nomination for Supreme Court Judge by the United Democracy

W. F. O'Neill, Esq., received the following dispatch, Friday afternoon:

"Will you accept the nomination for Supreme Court Justice on the United Democratic ticket? Please answer.
ROBT. STEWART, Secretary."

Mr. O'Neill replied:

Robt Stewart, Secretary United Democracy

Thanks to the United Democracy for their consideration of my name for the office of Justice of the Supreme Court, but I cannot accept for in so doing I might imperil the success of the regular Democratic ticket in this State and in Greater New York. W. F. O'NEILL.

Funeral of Miss Addie Shaw.

The funeral of Miss Addie Shaw was held at the First Congregational Church, this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Erskine, of the Hopewell Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev Dr Robinson. There was a very large attendance of sorrowing relatives and friends.

The body rested in a steel gray broadcloth casket, with satin rope bar handles and silver mountings There were many floral tributes

The bearers were J Harvey Rumph, J Frank Bull, Andrew Brown, S. Albert Bull, Julius Korn and P. H. Minshull

—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Huyler went to New York, to-day, for a few days.

—Miss Ida Cooley, of Liberty Falls, is spending a few days with relatives and friends in this city.

—Miss Callahan, of the State Hospital corps of attendants, left, to-day, for a fortnight's vacation at Morristown, N. J.

—Mrs. T. Conway and daughter, Edna have returned from Middletown, where they have been visiting friends.—Norwich Sun.

—Mrs. H. N. Whitney, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Douglass, returned to her home at Lisbon, N. Y., to-day.

—Miss Julia Strong, of Babylon, L. I., who has been spending a fortnight with Mrs. Mapes on East avenue, returned home, to-day.

—E. S. Keeler, who had a foot hurt some time ago by a horse stepping on it, was able to get up town, to-day, on crutches.

—Alderman Bastian is suffering from a severe cold, which he took while inspecting the basement and jail in the city building on King street.

—Under Sheriff Howell was in town, to-day. Despite the apparent strength of the machine in the county convention he still has hopes of being able to pull off the nomination for sheriff.

ACCIDENT TO W. H. HYDE.

Slipped on a Banana Peel and Fell and Broke His Collar Bone.

W. H. Hyde, the popular money order clerk at the post office, slipped on a banana peel in front of W. H. Foster's grocery on East Main street, Friday evening, and fell to the walk heavily. He walked home, and though his neck and shoulder hurt him, and continued to do so during the night, he did not think he had sustained serious injury.

This morning, however, he called upon Dr. J. B. Hulett, who discovered that his collar bone was broken. Mr. Hyde returned home and took to his bed.

Middletown's Medical Students.

Claude G. Crane went to New York, today, to resume his medical studies in the College of Physicians and Surgeons. Joseph Yocum will go to New York, Monday, to enter the same institution and Merritt I. Beers will next week enter the New York Homeopathic Medical College.

Slight Hail Storm This Morning.

The cold wave, which has followed the hot summer weather of Thursday and Friday, was accompanied by a slight hail storm, this morning.

THE COUNTY HORSE SHOW.

THE THIRD ANNUAL EXHIBITION ON GOSHEN DRIVING PARK.

Horses Not the Only Attraction—Social Features of the Affair—The Tuxedo Contingent—Occupants of the Boxes—Some of the Fine Horses Shown in the Different Classes—Awards of Prizes—The Speed Contests.

The opening day of the horse show at Goshen was a big success. The crowd was as large as had been anticipated, the classes were well filled and the day was perfect.

Horses are not by any means the only feature of interest at an Orange County Horse Show. No matter how fine the horses, many find the showy gowns and stunning hats and the fair faces of the ladies more interesting and attractive. The Horse Show, born of Tuxedo Day, brings to Goshen many of the swells from Tuxedo Park, who never fail to receive their full share of attention.

Manager Hock, of the races, sinks into obscurity when T. Suffern Tailer drives into the ring on his coach and four-in-hand. Beside him sits a strikingly handsome woman, who is apparently unconscious of the viewing she is receiving. His men leap from their perches, catch the leaders by their heads, and the party alights to enter their private box in the grand stand. Their personalities are unknown, but it makes no difference. The reporter who asks learns their names to be Miss Potter, Mrs. Granville Kane, Harry Van Cortlandt and Walter Smith.

Other people, prominent in the social life of New York city who might have been pointed out were:

S. S. Howland, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Kane and Miss Kane, Pierre Lorillard, Jr., F. Gray Griswold, Addison Cammack, G. W. Forsythe, John Greenough, George R. Gibson, O. Andrea, Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Fred De Peyster Foster, Mr. and Mrs. De Rahm, Thomas Stokes and Miss Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. R. McM. Gillespie, Harvey Brookman, E. Victor Loew and the Rev. Dr. Merrill.

Everything in horseflesh and vehicles was there, from the heavy-gaited coach horse to the slender-legged trotter, and from pony cart and phaeton to tally-ho and drag. The neighboring towns of Tuxedo, Newburgh, Port Jervis, Arden and Warwick were represented, both in the list of exhibitors and among the spectators. A number of handsome private turnouts were present from Tuxedo Park.

The thirty-two boxes in front of the grand stand were all taken as follows:

A—Dr. Seward, Goshen.
B—R. B. Hock, Goshen.
C—A. J. Moore, Goshen.
D—Henry Bacon, Goshen.
E—Mrs. Campbell Steward, Goshen.
F—William Lea, Monroe.
G—Mrs. John A. Goldsmith, Washingtonville.
H—W. P. Thompson, Goshen.
J—Col. Burt, Goshen.
K—Tuxedo Club, A. Cammack.
L—Mrs. Burt, Goshen.
M—C. M. Vail, Goshen.
N—G. A. Elston, Port Jervis.
O—J. J. Van Vliet, Goshen.
P—Assemblyman Bedell, Goshen.
Q—Edward Tompkins, Middletown.
R—G. W. Forsythe, Tuxedo.
S—O. Andrea, Tuxedo.
T—Mrs. Nicholas Fish, Tuxedo.
V and W—E. H. Harriman, Arden.
17—Granville Kane, Tuxedo.
18—James Van Nuyse, Goshen.
19—F. G. Wood, Newburgh.
20—John Greenleaf, Tuxedo.
21—G. W. Murray, Goshen.
22—Thos. Stokes, Tuxedo.

Nearly 300 horses are entered, and many well known breeders are among the exhibitors. Some of those having large entry lists are C. H. C. Beakes of the Cornwall Stock Farm, Cornwall; Mrs. John A. Goldsmith of Walnut Grove Farm, Washingtonville; Robert Goelet of Tuxedo, Mrs. E. H. Harriman of Arden Farms, Goshen; Miss Belle C. Henning of Highland Mills, S. S. Howland of Mount Morris, N. Y., and J. A. P. Ramsdell of Newburgh. Others who either had horses on exhibition yesterday or who drove noticeable rigs included the following: Pierre Lorillard, Jr., Richard Mortimer, A. E. Godefroy, A. VanCortlandt, Jr., Mrs. Frederick A. Snow, Mrs. William Kent, Mrs. George Griswold, Mrs. C. H. Coster, and Mrs. G. Morgan Barnwell of Tuxedo; Mrs. Campbell Stewart, George W. Murray, W. P. Richardson, Wickham T. Smith, and Rensselaer Weston of Goshen.

The class winners after the Argus was printed Friday were:

SADDLE HORSES.

Horses or mare, under 15 hands 1 inch, first prize, $20; second price, $10. First—Warray, Miss Mary Harriman, Arden, N. Y.; second—Vanity, Miss Edith B. Kane, Tuxedo; third—Klondike, J. A. P. Ramsdell, Newburgh.

Trotting mare or gelding, not under 15 or over 16 hands high; prize silver cup, value $50. First — Livonia, Arden Farms; second—Joe P., F. G. Wood, Newburgh; third — Oneota, Arden Farms.

Mare or gelding, roadster, not under 15 or over 16 hands high; prize, silver cup, value $15. First—Royal Princess, Robert Goelet, Tuxedo; second—Brilliant, Miss Belle C. Henning, Highland Mills; third—Klondike, Mrs. John A. Goldsmith, Washingtonville.

Combination Saddle and Driving Horse—Not less than 15.1 high, up to 170 in weight; prize, The Tuxedo Trophy, silver cup, value $50. First—Pilgrim, Mrs. E. A. Harriman, Arden; second—Jemima Pierre Lorillard, Jr., Tuxedo; third—Trilby, R. W. Rives, New Hamburgh.

The trotting races proved to be an easy thing for Mr. Harriman's horses. The summary was as follows:

2:30 Class—Trotting

Baxter, b. m., by Athell, (Andrews)	1	1	1
Miss Woodline, b. m., (Gurney)	2	2	2
Renby, ch. m., (Coates)	4	3	3
Ida K., br. m., (Everson)	3	4	4

Time—2:25¾; 2:28; 2:27.

2:19 Class—Trotting.

Edna B., b. m., by Flamstone, (Andrews)	1	1	1
Ella Madison, b. m., (Miller)	2	2	2

Time—2:23¾; 2:17; 2:22.

A pony race concluded the day's programme. Topsy, owned by J. J. Van Nuyse, ridden by Goodwin, was second in 1:05.

During the afternoon the stallions Stamboul and Montezuma were shown.

Refreshments were served by Harry Duncan in commodious tents in the ring.

ON THE TRACK TO-DAY.

NO BLANKS IN THIS COMPETITION

Consolation for Unsuccessful Exhibitors in McMonagle & Rogers' County Fair Cake Show.

Mrs. M. G. Morrison, Mrs. H. Wollenhaupt and Mrs. Frank Munday, of this city, who won respectively the first, second and third prizes offered by McMonagle & Rogers to exhibitors of cakes flavored with their premium extract of vanilla at the county fair, have received their prizes.

In order that there should be no blanks in this competition McMonagle & Rogers have sent a bottle of their vanilla extract to each of the unsuccessful competitors, accompanied by the following letter.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Oct. 2.

We have received official notification from judges of the Culinary Department at the Orange County Fair as to the successful competitors for the special prizes offered by us for the best angel cake flavored with our premium extract vanilla. We do not find your name among them, but, knowing that you competed for the prizes, we desire to include your name upon the list for our consolation prizes, which we are giving as a mark of appreciation of the efforts of those who, while not successful in the contest, nevertheless by their entering the lists contributed largely to the interest which the offer aroused and to the success of the fair.

We are sending a package containing one bottle of our premium extract of vanilla, and would ask that you accept the same with our compliments.

We may add that we propose offering the same prizes at the fair next year, and trust that you will again make an exhibit, and be among the successful contestants.

Very sincerely yours,
McMONAGLE & ROGERS.

Kicked by a Frisky Horse.

Emmet E. Wood was passing behind some horses in his stable about noon, today, when a hack horse, frisky because of little driving of late, kicked him. The horse's hoof struck against a bunch of keys in his trousers' pocket with such force as to drive the keys into his flesh. The wound is painful but not serious.

Can't Eat

This is the complaint of thousands at this season. They have no appetite; food does not relish and often fails to digest, causing severe suffering. Such people need the toning up of the stomach and digestive organs, which a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla will give them. It also purifies and enriches the blood, cures that distress after eating and

Internal Misery

Only a dyspeptic can know, creates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling and builds up and sustains the whole physical system. It so promptly and effectively relieves dyspeptic symptoms and cures nervous headaches, that it seems to have almost "a magic touch."

Distress After Eating.

"I have been troubled with indigestion for some time. After eating anything that was sweet I was sure to experience great difficulty and distress. Last fall I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and am glad to say that my stomach trouble has entirely disappeared. I can now eat a hearty meal of almost any kind of food and have no trouble afterwards. Hood's Sarsaparilla has also cured me of nervous spells." JOHN H. HOMRIGHAUSEN, Wheatland, Iowa. THE GOSPEL TUNES.

We've all been up to church to-day and used the same old pew,
We've sat together once again, just as we used to do
Afore the girls was married off and when the boys was here,
Afore they went away to make their livin' fur an' near
We've heard the same old parson preach—he's pretty prosy now—
We've had a mighty happy time, we old folks, anyhow
We're settin' here just as we used on Sunday afternoons;
Come, start the old melodeon up, we'll sing the Gospel tunes

You can't begin to know our joy to see each loving face,
To have you children home again around the dear old place.
Some bringin' children of your own—why goodness, gracious me!
When I think that's our Mary's child, seems if it couldn't be,
And yet I orter realize our journey's nearly done,
For mother's almost sixty-nine and I'm nigh seventy-one.
But I guess lovin' hearts'll change Decembers into Junes,
So let's do as we used to do, and sing the Gospel tunes.

There, mother, don't that put you back one solid thirty year?
Jest hear them voices lifted up in music high and clear;
The old melodeon's kinder cracked and squeaky in the throat,
She feels her age like us, I guess, a-trying for a note.
There, that's the song that Eben loved. Remember how he sang
That Sunday 'fore his vessel sailed, until the parlor rang?
Poor boy! they think his ship was lost in one of them typhoons.
I'm sure his sperrit's with us, though, to hear the Gospel tunes.

Ah me, how many times I've heard that solemn, sacred air;
I've heerd it when the sky was black and earth was jest despair,
I've heerd it sung by childish lips, so tender, soft and sweet,
And knelt and prayed to God for strength to work that they might eat.
Through sun and cloud, through rain and shine, He's fetched me on my way,
And now His kindness lets me live to see this happy day.
I Thank Thee, Lord, who grantest me this best of all Thy boons,
To hear their precious voices sing once more the Gospel tunes.

—Joe Lincoln, in L. A. W. Bulletin.

Managing Women.

BY GEORGE ADE.

WHILE the evening colony at the Alfalfa European hotel was fixing the market price of wheat the book agent came out from the hotel. He was very warm, undoubtedly, for his face was moist with perspiration and he had loosened his black string necktie. But when he looked up and down the street and sighed it was not the sigh of one who suffered from the heat, but of one who suffered at the heart. "Want a chair?" asked the freckled boy, hooking his foot in a chair and sliding it over toward the book agent.

"No, no, thank you," was the reply, and the book agent turned and went sauntering away.

"What's he got a grouch about?" asked the freckled boy.

"He is in trouble, and I feel sorry for him, too," said the lightning dentist. "His wife has sued him for a divorce."

"The one that used to make him sit up all night and rub her back and then kick because he didn't rub the right place?" asked the "lush."

"That's the one," replied the dentist. "He was telling me some more about her the other night. "I guess I'm the only one around here that he talks to much about it. She's a spiritualist, a vegetarian, a faith cure, a theophist—"

"Theosophist," corrected "Doc" Horne.

"What's that?" asked the freckled boy.

"She thinks this isn't our first time on earth," said the "lush."

"Rats!"

"Why does he object to her procuring a divorce?" asked Doc. "He hasn't lived with her for over a year, and I understand that he stands in dread of her. She had him arrested for larceny once, didn't she?"

"He doesn't object to the divorce so much," said the dentist, "but he hates to plead guilty to what she charges him with. He's a very sensitive fellow, you know, and doesn't understand that it's no disgrace to be charged with cruelty, desertion, harsh and abusive language and failure to provide. That's what she charges him with in her application for a divorce. He was telling me last night that he was absolutely innocent, and that he didn't leave her house until she made it so hot for him that he couldn't remain another day."

"Is she a good looker?" asked the freckled boy.

"She's a sight," said the dentist. "I saw her the day she caught him here at the hotel and gave him that horrible roast. I'd like to know why in the world he ever married her."

"I suppose the book business was slow," said the "lush." "She has some money, hasn't she?"

"She's got money now that she had before the war. He says that he nearly starved to death while he was living with her. Vegetarian, you know. Oatmeal and prunes for breakfast, brown bread and potatoes for dinner. You ought to get him to tell you about it."

"Do you know what I'd do if I had that kind of a wife?" asked the freckled boy. "I don't believe in bein' rough with a lady as long as she is one, but if she'd ever try any of that funny work with me I'd call her down if I had to swing on her."

"Oh, well, I don't know," remarked the "lush." "It isn't a very proper thing to do—to slug a perfect lady. I'd simply go ahead and run the house in my own way and pay no attention to anything she said. You see, after a woman talks herself black in the face without getting an argument she has to stop."

"It's too bad that our friend did not confer with you gentlemen before he left his wife," said "Doc," with a half-restrained smile. "You know how to manage women and could have given him some valuable advice."

"Well, I've never been married, but I've always known one thing," said the dentist. "A man has got to assert his independence in his own house. If he lets his wife think that she can order him around and treat him like a schoolboy he might as well give up all hope of having any liberty of his own. I don't say that a man ought to be harsh with a woman, but he ought to give her to understand that he can come and go once in awhile without asking her permission."

"That's right," said the "lush." If this book agent friend of ours had gone out and got drunk the night he married the old girl and then came home and chased her around the house with a hatchet she'd have had some respect for him. I knew a man once who chased his wife with a hatchet at least once a month. He loved her all right, and wouldn't have harmed her for anything in the world, but he claimed that he had to make this hatchet demonstration at least once a month in order to maintain his rights. After every outbreak she'd be pleasant and attentive for several weeks. Then her respect for his rights would begin to weaken and he would have to get out his hatchet again."

"Seriously speaking, I don't believe a woman has much regard for a man who allows himself to be tied to her apron strings," said the dentist.

"Why, of course not!" exclaimed the freckled boy, with an indifferent gesture, to show that he was an expert. "I'll win out in ten minutes where one of those easy, polite guys wouldn't make a showin' in an hour. You've got to make a woman think that you're the real stuff and know what she wants better than she knows it herself."

"Gentlemen," began "Doc" Horne, gazing critically at his cigar as he rolled it between his thumb and second finger. "Gentlemen, I went into a store in Ohio one day and listened for an hour while three men discussed the fine points of navigation. They had beautiful themes as to the handling of vessels and some new ideas in shipbuilding. I learned afterward that not one of the three had ever been within 500 miles of salt water, or had ever seen a boat more than 20 feet long. Your learned opinions regarding matrimony and the management of wives reminds me of that talk on navigation."

"That is what is called an upper-cut," said the "lush."

"Doc, I don't see any medals on you for getting married," remarked the freckled boy, with a wink at the dentist.

"And you have not heard me telling of the rights and privileges of a husband, either," said "Doc," turning on the freckled boy and speaking with unusual earnestness. "Why, gentlemen, it amuses me to hear you young gentlemen sit here and talk about women and matrimony as if you had studied them for years. Don't you know that woman has been the puzzle of all ages because there were never two women alike? How can you pass judgment on a husband when you know nothing of the conditions surrounding a married man? It's very easy to sit here and tell what you would do or you would not do if you were a husband. You seem to forget that millions of young men have talked in the same manner, only to learn later that theories count for little when applied to actual experience. Some of you may learn, some day, that the wise husband simply gets along with as little friction as possible, preferring compromise to open battles. You have spoken, half seriously, of the propriety of a husband taming and managing a wife as he would a domestic animal. Don't you know it is the brutal husband, rather than the complaining wife, who makes married life a hell in so many houses? Furthermore, you young men who are accustomed to the skylarking and irregular life of a hotel seem to think it is unreasonable that a woman should attempt to interfere with a husband's going or coming, or complain if he arrives home at all hours of the night. Here you sit and consider the case of a married man from the standpoint of a bachelor. You're like so many raw colts not yet broken to ride and drive. You can tell how you will kick up and smash things if they ever saddle or bridle you and dare to touch you with the whip, but all of you will become good old family nags in time if the right trainers get hold of you."

"Where can I get a copy of the lecture, 'Doc,'" asked the freckled boy.

"And what you need," continued "Doc," "is a large woman with a mind of her own, who will keep you at work six days a week and collect your pay on Saturday. I'd like to meet you, young man, about two years after your marriage and find out if there has been any change in your views."—Chicago Record.

To the Point.

Africa always has been afflicted with drought, and among the Boers prayers are regularly offered up—usually when the drought already has begun—for relief from this evil, and the author of "On Veldt and Farm" tells a story of a pastor who pointed out the futility of assisting people who would not assist themselves. A Presbyterian congregation once pointed out to the minister that, in view of the impending drought, it were well to approach the Almighty on the subject of the rainfall. "I will not insult the Almighty," replied the sturdy Scot, "by asking such a favor of Him, after the way in which you have let His past mercies run away from you." The rebuke was leveled at the inadequacy of the water storage, and it is to be hoped was not without due effect.—Youth's Companion.

—The violence of the wind on the Grampian hills is so great that on several occasions it has brought to a standstill trains traveling from Perth to the north.

When a man gets his blood and nerves in perfect order, he shuts the door against disease and death. Germs have no effect on a perfectly healthy body. It is when the body is weak and the blood impure that disease germs lodge and develop. A man may get well and keep well by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the one reliable cure for all pulmonary complaints. Its effect upon throat, lungs and bronchial tubes is immediate and pronounced. It is a wonderful blood purifier. It works upon the blood first. It stimulates the action of all the digestive organs, promotes assimilation and makes nutrition perfect. It contains elements that work directly on the nerves, giving them steadiness and strength. It is for this reason highly recommended to those suffering from brain fag, overwork and loss of sleep. Thousands of people have testified to the wonderful benefits received from this great medicine. Among them, Mrs. Ella Howell, of Derby, Perry Co., Ind., who writes:

"I was so weak I could not walk across the room without assistance. I took Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and his 'Favorite Prescription' and one bottle of the 'Pleasant Pellets.' I began to improve very fast after the use of a few bottles. The physicians who attended me said I had 'dropsy,' and that my disease was leading into pulmonary consumption. I had quite a cough, and the home physician gave me up to die. I thank God that my cure is permanent. I do not feel any symptoms of my old disease. I cannot praise Dr Pierce and his remedies too highly. The medicines come the nearest to 'raising the dead' of any that I have ever known about. They are worth their weight in gold."

THE STARTING POINT of almost all diseases is in the digestive organs. Constipation leads to more diseases than any other one cause. It is not looked upon as a serious thing, but it is. It means that poisonous, effete matter, that should be excreted, is retained in the body, and some portions of it must, of course, be reabsorbed by the blood. It is thus carried all over the body, and has its effect in producing headaches, biliousness, sour stomach, foul breath, heart-burn, flatulence, palpitation of the heart, and many other serious symptoms. It can be quickly and permanently cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. A little vial contains forty "Pellets." At druggists.

Safe from Squandering.

Mrs. Shadbolt—I think it's a shame—the reckless way you spend your money. You never seem to think it's time to begin to lay up something for old age! No, I don't want you to speculate, but I do think you might put a little money in some permanent investment once in awhile.

Mr. Shadbolt (with evident reluctance)—That's what I've been doing, my dear. I lent Dinguss ten dollars this morning.—Chicago Tribune.

Unheard-Of Indignity.

"When that there young dude wanted to borry a knife to cut an apple in two," said Uncle Zeke, "I offered him mine. Opened the big blade for him. He looked at it an' turned up his nose 'Twasn't good enough, I reckon. An' they ain't a better knife nowher's. Blade was as sharp as a razor, too. Always use it fur cuttin' my terbacker. Some folks makes me mighty blame tired!"—Chicago Tribune.

A Celebrity.

No scholar he, of classic fame,
No brainy, keen inventor,
Plain Reuben Muggins is his name—
He lives at Pogy Center.
But, ah! his letters have a place
'Mid those of wisest sages,
And countless papers use his face
To decorate their pages
What has he done, or seen, or braved
To cause this great commotion?
Why, he's the man whose life was saved
By "Skinner's Pigweed Lotion."
—L. A. W. Bulletin.

DIDN'T BELIEVE IN SIGNS.

Mr. Jayseed—Hey, there! Can't you read that thair sign?

Mr. Nervie—I can; but you are misinformed, my dear sir. There is fishing here.—Up-to-Date.

Neither Satisfied.

Because she has to curl her hair
My wife is nearly always late;
The colored cook spends all her cash
For stuff to make her wool grow straight.
—Puck.

Not at All Difficult.

"Oh, dear," she sighed, "I wish I knew how to keep gowns from crushing."

"Don't wear them," he said, without looking up from his paper.

And it was well that he didn't look up from his paper, too, for the sight of an angry woman has a tendency to disconcert the average man.—Chicago Post.

A Safety Measure.

"That woman told me she wanted me to make her photograph look pretty."

"What did you say?"

"I told her I would if she would sign a contract not to make a fuss if they didn't look like her."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Lesson Lost on Him.

Col. Louie Veel—Well, some folks never learn by experience.

Mrs. Louie Veel—What is the matter now?

Col. Louie Veel—Col. Threefingers has gone and got married a second time.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

His Address.

Mrs. Bingo—Your friend Jones was in, and said he would call to see you some evening.

Bingo—What did you tell him?

Mrs. Bingo—Oh, I gave him the name of your club.—Brooklyn Life.

Serves Him Right.

Bobby—Uncle Joe, what is a bigamist?

Uncle Joe—A bigamist? He is a man who gets sent to jail for thinking he is smart enough to manage two women at once.—N. Y. Truth.

It Stayed with Him.

Mrs. Justwed—How did you like the cakes I made you for breakfast this morning?

Mr. Justwed (with a groan)—Well, I used to think that a person couldn't eat his cake and have it, too.—Judge.

How He Got Rid of Them.

Gilder—Your company stayed very late last evening.

Johnson—Yes, and they would have stayed longer if I hadn't asked my wife to sing.—Town Topics.

Foolish Man.

"Why do you think him such a fool?"

"He asked me to marry him, and of course I refused the first time, and he didn't have sense enough to ask me again."—Chicago Post.

A Brief Criticism.

"I have only one fault to find with this poem," said the soulless editor.

"And what is that?" inquired the author.

"It's no good." Washington Star.

Had No Chance.

Mrs. Bacon—Did you offer Mr. Crimsonbeak your umbrella when he went out?

Mr. Bacon—No, I didn't have a chance; he took it.—Yonkers Statesman.

Driven to It.

"Here's a story of a tramp who begged a clean shirt and then went away and killed himself."

"Well, I suppose the collar sawed his neck."—Chicago Record.

The Requisites.

Ten Broke—I see you wear a bird in your hat?

Perdita—Well, you carry a bottle in your pocket. Let's have lunch.—N. Y. Journal.

THE ITINERANTS' CLUB.

The Very Attractive Programme Arranged for Its Meeting In This City Next Week.

The New York Conference Itinerants' Club holds its fifth annual session in St. Paul's M. E. Church, this city, Oct. 4-7. The Conference Board of Examiners and the students, about sixty in number, will meet for examinations on Monday. On Tuesday, at 2:30 p. m., a programme of lectures, conferences, etc., will begin, concluding Thursday night.

Dr. J. E. Price, the secretary, announces a strong programme. Dr. Robert W. Rogers, the only American scholar of this continent who has seen the recent "Deluge Tablet" and the only scholar who has personally inspected the rich Babylonian find made by the expedition of the University of Pennsylvania, will lecture on "Recent Oriental Research." Dr. Wm. North Rice, of Wesleyan University, will lecture on "Physical Science and Biblical Theology." Dr. H. A. Buchtel will lecture on "Church History," and Dr. C. T. Winchester, of Wesleyan University, with lecture on "English Literature."

Besides these there will be lectures and papers by several members of the New York Conference, varied by conversations and discussions. Popular lectures for the evening will be as follows:

Dr. J. R. Day, "A Mile a Minute;" Dr O. L. Severson, "The Battle of Gettysburgh;" Dr. S. P. Cadman, "The Puritans." The entire New York Conference of about 350 members is invited to attend. These annual gatherings are occasions of great inspiration both to the ministers and to the laity of the town where the session is held.

THE FLIGHT OF CHRISTIEN.

Circled Round the Canal Reservoir and Then Went South Along the Neversink —His Skill With a Revolver.

From the Monticello Watchman.

We have definitely ascertained that after the shooting Christien travelled around the canal reservoir on the "Barrens," crossed the turnpike east of Rock Hill, and then south until he struck the road leading down on the east side of the Neversink river, passing the residence of Henry W. Case on Monday afternoon in the direction of Hackledam, where Sanford E. Silviers lives. This is the last that is known positively about his whereabouts.

It is told of Christian that he is one of the best shots in the United States. Our informant says he has seen him take two dollar pieces and set them up at a distance of twelve paces from him, and take a revolver in each hand, fire the one in his left hand first and hit the right hand dollar, and then with the revolver in his right hand, hit the dollar on the left. He could carve his name with pistol balls on any surface large enough at a distance of ten paces. Another informant, who knew him well, says that he was never able to catch his eye in any conversation. Many other strange peculiarities are told of him by his friends on the "Barrens."

A Joyful Family Reunion.

Sanford Jacoby, whose family recently learned of his whereabouts through the Pension office, after he had been absent for twenty-two years, arrived in Port Jervis, Friday morning, from Buffalo, where he had been living, and was reunited to his wife, son and daughter. Mr. Jacoby has been in a morbid condition for years, and his memory seems much impaired, which in a measure accounts for his strange silence.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature to do its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for lists of testimonials.

A Great Surprise is in Store

for those who will go to dry and get a package of GRAIN-O. It takes the place of coffee at about one-fourth the cost. It is a food drink, full of health and can be given to the children as well as the adult with great benefit. It is made of pure grains and looks and tastes like the finest grades of Mocha or Java coffee. It satisfies everyone. A cup of GRAIN-O is better for the system than a tonic, because its benefit is permanent. What coffee breaks down GRAIN-O builds up. Ask your grocer for GRAIN-O. Fifteen and twenty-five cents.

WALTON MILK PRODUCERS KICK

Threaten to Stop Selling Milk to the O. C. M. A. Condensery.

The farmers who supply milk to the Orange County Milk Association's condensery at Walton have notified the association that unless its system of buying milk is changed they will not continue to sell to it. Until last spring milk was bought by the can, and then a change was made to the weight system. The farmers say, however, that a combination of the two systems is now used to their disadvantage. The association's theory is that a forty-quart can of milk should weigh eighty-six pounds, and if it does not it is counted short weight. Farmers say that a can of milk will not weigh more than eighty-five pounds, and often only eighty-three or eighty-four, and as a consequence there is a constant scaling down of their bills, and the price received falls short of that agreed on, a fourth of a cent below the Exchange price.

An incidental grievance of the farmers is that the price paid them is considerably below that paid at the Borden condenseries at Delhi and Deposit.

The officers of the association have been very independent in their talk to the farmers during the past week, telling them in effect that if they don't like the way they are treated they can find a market for their milk elsewhere.

WON'T GET MAE CHRISTIEN.

Coroner Helm Decides That It Requires too Much Effort to Secure Her for Tuesday's Inquest.

Peter McCune, of Wurtsboro, was in town, to-day. He states that Coroner Helm will probably not hear Mae Christian's testimony at the adjourned inquest in the Manny case, Tuesday. There is so much red tape in getting the papers requiring her to come out of her retreat in New Jersey to Wurtsboro to testify, that it is quite likely that it will not be attempted.

In the meantime if any attempt is being made to follow up and arrest Christien it is being made so quietly and secretly that nothing of it shows on the surface.

HYMENEAL.

Moule—Frost.

The wedding of Fred Moule, the eye specialist, of this city, and Miss Margaret M. Frost, of Newburgh, occurred at the parsonage of St. John's M. E. Church, Wednesday, Rev. S Ernest Jones officiating. Mr. and Mrs. John M. Purdy were the only persons present.

The couple came here at once, and are now residing at No. 145 West Main street. Mrs. Moule has been first soprano in Newburgh's Trinity M. E. Church, and in the synagogue of Beth Jacob.

Mr. Moule has formed many acquaintances here, who heartily congratulate him.

A PROSPEROUS BUSINESS.

Union Hat Company Pays 15 per Cent Dividend.

The Union Hat Company, (the straw works) after a year's operation under the sole management of Henry C. Benson, has declared and paid a dividend of 15 per cent on its stock. The company was never better situated than at present, and with its fine prospects for a winter trade, a larger dividend will doubtless be declared next year.

Base Ball Notes.

—It is understood that the third and decisive game of the Goshen-Port Jervis series is hung up by the refusal of the manager of the Goshen nine to play if Luckey pitches for Port Jervis. Luckey formerly played on the Port Jervis nine and claims that village as his home, but this season he has been playing with semi-professional nines in Pennsylvania. The manager of the Port Jervis nine is willing to play the game in Goshen if Luckey can go in the box.

Sick-poison is a poison which makes you sick. It comes from the stomach. The stomach makes it out of undigested food.

The blood gets it and taints the whole body with it. That's the way of it.

The way to be rid of it is to look after your digestion.

If your food is all properly digested, there will be none let in the stomach to make sick-poison out of.

If your stomach is too weak to see to this properly by itself, help it along with few doses of Shaker Digestive Cordial.

That's the cure of it.

Shaker Digestive Cordial is a delicious, healthful, tonic cordial, made of pure medicinal plants, herbs and wine.

It positively cures indigestion and prevents the formation of sick-poison.

IT'S HERE!

The first touch of this frosty weather seems to inject a few Underwear thoughts into our minds. We didn't know but what we made a mistake in figuring upon any cold weather this fall, these hot days hung on like a nine lived cat. But now we're glad we did fix ourselves in shape to do the Underwear business. We never before had such values to offer.

We Bought Our Underwear!

way back in May, when prices were at the very lowest, and the manufacturers were glad to take orders at any price just to keep the mills running.

We have some bargains that will be a great surprise to you and will serve to confirm you in your correct opinion that this is the place to go when you want your dollars to get the best and most that they can be exchanged for.

REMEMBER OUR PIANO CONTEST!

Every cash purchaser of 50 cents worth of goods will receive a coupon. At the expiration of time the person holding the greatest number of coupons will receive the HANDSOME UPRIGHT PIANO which is on exhibition in our window.

AT a Special Term of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, held at Chambers, in the city of Newburgh, Orange county, on the 26th day of September, 1897. Present, Hon. M. H. Hirschberg, Justice.

Supreme Court, county of Orange—In the matter of the petition of Thomas Butcher to have mortgage discharged of record

On reading and filing the petition of Thomas Butcher, dated the 24th day of September, 1897 praying that a mortgage executed by Thomas Butcher and wife to Edward Hulch and William Miller, dated October 17th, 1872 and recorded in Orange county Clerk's office, in Book 188, at page 487, etc., of mortgages, on the 21st day of October, 1872, at 8 o'clock a. m., and covering premises situate in the city of Middletown, Orange county, may be discharged of record

It is on motion of John Wilkin, of counsel for said petitioner, ordered that all persons interested show cause at a Special Term of this court, to be held at Chambers, in the city of Newburgh, on the 16th day of October, at 10 o'clock a. m., why the said mortgage should not be discharged of record.

It is further ordered that this order be published in the DAILY ARGUS, a newspaper printed at Middletown once in each week for three weeks successively, and that a copy of this order be served on the heirs of said Hulch and Miller ten days before the said 16th day of October 1897.

M. H. HIRSCHBERG, Justice.
